Our society members voted to try something different when publishing these Bible records.

Someone asked how many of the records where actual photo-copies of the original. And when they learned that many of them were, they made the comment, "Wouldn't it be wonderful to pick up a book of Bible records, find your family's surname there, and turn to the page and see a copy of the original!" So many members agreed that we voted on it and this book is the result.

To every positive of an issue there is always a negative. The only typing that was done within the book is where the original writing was so faint as to be difficult to read. But when I received these records, at times there was additional information. And because of the format, this was not included. So I have placed an asterisk after the surname in the table of contents to indicate this.

The records I have used will be placed in the Salem Public Library, in the Columbiana County Chapter's file cabinet, under the title 'Bible Records'.

Pat McArtor

MARRIED.—On Thursday, the 14th inst., at the "Patton House," by John S. Haines, Esq., Mr. Joseph Unkefer, to Miss Emma Montgomery, all of this county.

—— August 14th, 1856, by Rev. S. F. Miller, Mr John V. Kennedy, and Miss Eliza Jane Combs, both of this place.

Accompanying the above notice was a large portion of the delicious wedding cake which was received by the printers with grateful hearts, and devoured by them, amid a thousand wishes that * * * * * * *-long life, happiness and prosperity would attend the newly wedded pair. Here is our Devil's wish:

Now John has got a wife and comb,
His wheel of fortune's made,
May he ne'er wander from his home
Nor at it be afraid.

May innumerable fellows surround the wheel--
Beauties of either sex,
That Pa and Ma may happy feel,
And never--get in a pet.
(P.S. give us Reen.(!)

Last Will and Testament in manner and form following.

Principally and first of all I commend my immortal Soul to God who gave it, and my body to the earth to be buried in a decent manner, at the discretion of my executors hereinafter mentioned and as to such worldly estate wherewith it hath been pleased God to bless me in this life I gave and dispose of the same in the following manner to wit. Likewise I gave and bequeath to my daughter Sarah Johnston the sum of fifty pounds to be paid in like manner, likewise I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Isabella M.c Adow the sum of fifty pounds to be paid in like manner, each of my three sons to pay an equal share of the same, And lastly I nominate my wife Isabella Burns and my son John Burns to be the executors of this my last Will hereby revoaking all other Wills Legacies and bequeths by me heretofore maid and declaiming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament In Witness hereof I have set my hand and seale this eighteenth day of September eighteen hundred and six.

FAMILY TEMPERANCE PLEDGE

WHY SIGN THE PLEDGE BECAUSE

. Moderate drinking tends to nkenness, while total abstinence ctly from it.

While no one means to become unkard, there is said to be over x hundred thousand confirmed unkards in our country to-day.

3. Intoxicating drinks can do good as a beverage, and there always safer and surer remedies se in case of sickness.

The idea of moderation is full lceit, and our estimate of the er of our own will is usually a taken one.

The drinking habit is the cause he larger portion of the misery, erty and crime in our land.

Both science and experience re that even moderate drinking is injurious to health.

WHY SIGN THE PLEDGE BECAUSE

7. Eternal interests are often forfeited through drink, for the Bible declares that no drunkard shall enter heaven.

8. The Bible pronounces no blessing upon drinking, but many upon total abstinence.

9. It is easier to keep a pledge publicly, solemnly given than a simple resolution.

10. The pledge protects us from the solicitations of friends and removes us from the temptations of the saloon.

11. Persons miscalculate their ability to drink in moderation, and become slaves to the drinking habit before they are aware of it.

12. Intemperance obstructs civilization, education, religion and every useful reform.

BELIEVING IT TO BE BETTER FOR ALL —WE,—

THE UNDERSIGNED SOLEMNLY PROMISE,

BY THE HELP OF GOD,

TO ABSTAIN FROM THE USE OF ALL INTOXICATING DRINKS AS A BEVERAGE.

CHAP. IV.

Before CHRIST cir. 397. 1 God's judgment on the wicked, 2 and his blessing on the good. 4 He exhorteth to the study of the law; 5 and telleth of Elijah's coming and office.

FOR behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

2 ¶ But unto you that fear my name, shall the [a] Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and he shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

Before CHRIST cir. 161. fender of the citizens, both in body and mind, and who continued his love towards his countrymen all his life, commanded to ſtrike off Nicanor's head, and his hand with his ſhoulder, and bring them to Jeruſalem.

31 So when he was there, and had called them of his nation together, and ſet the prieſts before the altar, he ſent for them that were of the tower,

32 And ſhewed them vile Nicanor's head, and the hand of that blaſphemer, which with proud brags he had ſtretched out againſt the holy temple of the Almighty.

33 And when he had cut out the tongue of that ungodly Nicanor, he commanded that they ſhould give it by pieces unto the fowls, and hang up the reward of his madneſs before the temple.

34 So every man praiſed toward the heaven the glorious Lord, ſaying, Bleſſed be he that hath kept his own place undefiled.

35 He hanged alſo Nicanor's head upon the tower, an evident and manifeſt ſign unto all of the help of the Lord. Before CHRIST cir.

36 And they ordained all with a common decree, in no caſe to let that day paſs without ſolemnity, but to celebrate the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which in the Syrian tongue is called Adar, the day before Mardocheus' day.

37 Thus went it with Nicanor: and, from that time forth the Hebrews had the city in their power. And here will I make an end.

38 And if I have done well, and as is fitting the ſtory, it is that which I deſired: but if ſlenderly and meanly, it is that which I could attain unto.

39 For as it is hurtful to drink wine or water alone; and as wine mingled with water is pleaſant, and delighteth the taſte: even ſo, ſpeech finely framed, delighteth the ears of them that read the ſtory. And here ſhall be an end.
